

CJ-300 Criminology

Description:

This course uses real-world material to clarify concepts and theories in a concise, understandable manner. CJ-300 Criminology covers all sides of the issues without taking a political or theoretical position. Providing a broad, interdisciplinary view of Criminology, this course includes the latest insights into political crime; terrorism (e.g., ISIS, lone wolves); white-collar, blue-collar and green-collar crime; cybercrime and transnational crime (such as human trafficking). This course also builds student mastery of key concepts while engaging them with video cases, career scenarios, visual summaries, and more.
